To Whom It May Concern:

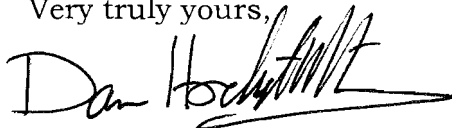

Videocom has serviced our intercom system at our building located at 120 East 34th Street, New York, New York.

Previously we had other intercom companies attempt to service the system at the premises without success. As a result, we started to look for experts in intercom repairs and found Videocom.

We hired Videocom to check the system which they ended up repairing in a fast and competent manner. Videocom came in with expert technicians that impressed us with their knowledge and testing tools. In short order they got the entire system back in perfect operational condition.

I would like to thank Videocom for helping us to fix our system and would like to recommend them to anybody in need of intercom experts.

Very truly yours,

Dan Hochstadt
